➔ Please translate my document(s) from English into the following language:

Instructions:

Without detaching the apostille and any County Clerk certificates attached to your documents, please scan your documents and email them to translations@apostilleservices.com. We will review your request within one business day. Completed translations are emailed once done.

Your Credit Card Information (Please print clearly):

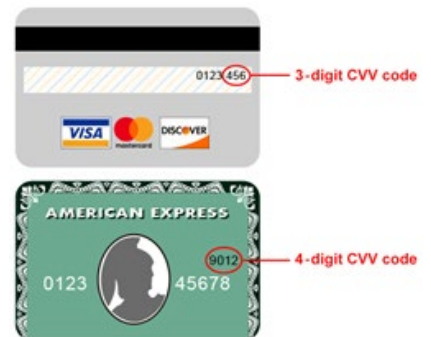

Name on Card: _____

E-mail Address: _____

Card Number: _____

Expiration Date (Month/Year): _____ 3 or 4 Digit CVV code _____

Cardholder Signature: _____

You agree to pay the total amount due according to your card issuer agreement. Charge will appear as USA Apostille, Inc. or Apostille on your credit card statement.

Processing Time:

1-3 business days (Excluding Saturday, Sunday, & Major Holidays). If translating your documents takes longer than three business days, we will contact you with an update. Once your translation has been completed, it will be emailed to you.

Cost for Translation Service:

The cost is $95 for up to 250 words or less, one-sided, and on a standard 8.5" x 11" dimension page or smaller. Each page is counted individually, and it is not based on a cumulative total. Any excess over 250 words per page (one-sided), will be billed an additional $95 per 250 words per page one-sided.

Important Disclaimer – Please Read Carefully:

Our translators are not international lawyers or representatives of other countries. They do not know the laws of other countries or the specific requirements of the Embassy or Consulate offices. The translator's responsibility is to only translate your documents from English into the language you choose above. The translation will not be notarized nor will it be printed on any special paper. The translation itself will not be apostilled. Difficult to read documents cannot be translated. Once the translation is complete, it will be emailed to you. The cover letter of the translation will be written in English. There are no refunds for the translation service, but we will quickly fix any errors that are found.
